Northern Valley

Crime & Intelligence Analysts Association

WHO WE ARE:

NoVCIAA established in 1990, is comprised of more than 20 Law Enforcement Agencies, with over 40 representative members. More than half of our members are certified crime and intelligence analysts.

Membership reaches as far south as Manteca and as far north as Eureka, California.

WHAT WE ARE:

A non-profit organization of members from various Law Enforcement Agencies committed to promote the exchange of crime and intelligence analysis information, increase professionalism in the fields, and provide training opportunities for all members.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND US:

On the web: <http://www.novciaa.org>

DUES:

The Cost of membership is $40.00 per year. Please contact the Treasurer for pro-rated dues.

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING AND TRAINING:

Meetings are held every other month. Members host meetings and arrange for training/speakers of interest to the majority of the membership.

Previous training sessions have included: Investigative Internet Resources, Identity Theft, Information Tracking, Violent Criminal Profiling, and computer training in accessing the parole LEADS, CAL JRIES, and CalGang databases.

Every year we have a joint Christmas luncheon with BACIAA –Bay Area Crime and Intelligence Analysts Association – in which we make a donation to a local charitable organization.

STATE AFFILIATION:

NoVCIAA is one of six regional associations in California which make up the California Crime and Intelligence Analysts Association (CCIAA). Each year one of these six associations hosts the annual CCIAA Conference.

NoVCIAA hosted the 2004 California Crime and Intelligence Analysts Association located in Old Town Sacramento.
